

Philipp Zuercher: Electric Guitar

Philipp Zuercher plays original instrumental compositions and improvisations, juxtaposing progressive rock, modal jazz, world and modern classical music.

Biography

Philipp Zuercher was born in 1970. He had the chance to get some very early tuition in rhythmic and classical violin. Later, he studied the electric guitar, keyboards and music theory at the Swiss Jazz School et al. His passion for music led to two lines of business simultaneously: he got professional training and a dayjob as an instrument maker, while keeping on composing and performing: songs, instrumental pieces for solo guitar and small ensembles, and subsequently also electroacoustic and multimedia productions. As a soloist, he has performed in Switzerland, England and the USA. For the last 13 years, he has worked as an electric guitar tutor at Guerbetal Music School, Bern, Switzerland.

These solo electric guitar performances - some including live-looping - crisscross contemporary classical, modal jazz, and progressive rock spheres with intelligence, verve, and adventurousness. The Swiss guitarist's crisply distorted and subtly processed tones perfectly match the sophisticated and highly engaging compositions. (Barry Cleveland, Guitar Player Magazine, USA)

A must hear for guitar aficionados. (Marco Zysset, Trespass, Switzerland)

An excellent Swiss guitarist, a talent not to be ignored. (Trevor Taylor, Avant, England)
